

WAS IT A MAN'S HAND

That Wrote the Cowering "Suffrage" Resolution

INTRODUCED BY THE WOMEN

At the Woman's Republican Association Yesterday Afternoon—Miss Anthony, Anna Shaw and Others Denounce It Bitterly and It is Withdrawn.

The committee on resolutions of the Kansas Woman's Republican association in session at 706 Kansas avenue, precipitated a fight when it reported the following resolution:

"While disclaiming any desire to make it a test of party fealty, we recognize the justice of the pending suffrage amendment and ask from every Republican its just and earnest consideration."

This resolution was prepared by a committee composed of Mrs. Minnie D. Morgan, (wife of the editor of the Chase County Leader) Mrs. Mattie A. Burdick of Topeka, and Miss Della Sunderland.

Mrs. Morgan, who is supposed to be responsible for the resolution, is the wife of W. A. Morgan, editor of the Chase County Leader, who is a delegate to the Republican state convention, and it is said the resolution was prepared by his direction.

Mrs. J. Ellen Foster said that the resolution should say more on suffrage, and that the women of Kansas having enjoyed municipal suffrage, should not adopt a resolution which did not declare emphatically in favor of universal suffrage.

Susan B. Anthony next arose, trembling with emotion: "This is an insult to women who have come to Kansas to labor in the interest of equal suffrage. When you refuse to favor a plank in the platform you are giving us a direct slap in the face. I did not expect to attend a meeting in this state which is guilty of passing such a resolution as that."

"Twenty-seven years ago I came to Kansas and worked earnestly for the enfranchisement of women and my whole life has been devoted to the work; but if you adopt such a resolution my work in Kansas is ended. I shall leave your state and never return to work for suffrage." Tears filled the eyes of the veteran suffragist and she sat down overwhelmed.

Rev. Anna Shaw was the next speaker. She said she was not a Republican and could only speak by the courtesy of the president. She said:

"Women of Kansas, you are acting like a lot of school girls. Is this our reward for what we have done in Kansas? I have come to your state and have worked my very life out. I have spoken every night including Sunday, and come here to be insulted by the association. If I considered that this was the sentiment of the women of Kansas, I would pack my grip and leave the state today. God doesn't allow any people or nation or party to live who disobey Him and he will do the same in this case."

Mrs. Foster: "I care more for the dominant principles of the Republican party than for woman suffrage, and I won't leave the Republican party if it does not adopt suffrage."

Miss Anthony: "When I say anything here I feel as if I were talking to a lot of school girls."

Mrs. Johns: "It is an unthinkable thing for women to adhere to the Republican party and not demand suffrage. I doubt if I can ever lift my hand again if this resolution is adopted. I don't think I can. Such an action would not represent the sentiment of the women of Kansas."

The committee asked leave to withdraw the resolution and after a consultation reported the following, which was adopted:

Resolved, That we, the Republican women of Kansas, having worked for the best interests of the state, using the ballot with judgment in school and municipal elections, demonstrating the benefits to be obtained, ask the Republicans in Kansas state convention assembled to testify and advocate an equal ballot and a fair count to all citizens.

The association elected officers as follows:

Mrs. Minnie Morgan of Cottonwood Falls, president; Mrs. Laura M. Johns of Salina, vice president; Miss Helen Kimber of Parsons, secretary; Mrs. Emma Best of Rosedale, treasurer, and Mrs. Anna Stine of Rosedale, state organizer.

STILL INDIGNANT.

Miss Anthony Feels That Great Injury Has Been Done the Cause.

Susan B. Anthony is indignant at the attempt made to force the Woman's Republican association to adopt the resolution refusing to request the Republican state convention to adopt a suffrage plank in the Republican platform.

"That resolution was prepared by a prominent Republican politician," said she to a Journal reporter, "or at least one was sent to me worded precisely the same. It simply shows that this association is an auxiliary of the wire-pulling, Republican politicians, and that they were attempting to have it do their will."

"This association is a myth. It has a high sounding name and that is what will hurt us. There are only four cities outside of Topeka represented. They misrepresent the women of the state, for I am sure that the rank and file of Republican women are in favor of woman suffrage. In the resolution finally adopted by the members not a thing was said about woman, but when it was given out the word 'woman' was added."

"What is the use of woman going into politics if they represent the wire-pulling politicians. If that is what they are going to do they had better stay out."

"I take the position and so does Miss Shaw, that whatever party adopts our plank we will lift their kite, and we will go into their meetings and use all our influence to help them. It is not so with Mrs. Foster. She is here as the hired emissary of Republican politicians who have determined to silence the women on this question."

"Do you know that there are many poor women in the east going without a hat or a dress to send $25 to help the cause in Kansas, and then this association skulks behind the politicians and insults us. I won't have anything to do with such people. I wash my hands of the whole affair. I have never been so wrought up in my life. I never saw a set of women so caped. The men say they are sweet and all those things and then they do their will. 'Twas the veriest spaniel like position imaginable."

Good work done by the Peerless.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Items of Interest About Topeka People and Visitors in Town.

The wedding of Miss Flossie Sherman, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. Sherman, and Mr. Richard F. Hodgins was solemnized last evening at the family residence on Kansas avenue.

At half past 8 o'clock the bridal party entered the parlor to the notes of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Mrs. George Burghart, who wore a gown of white satin with yoke and ruffles of valencienne lace and pink roses, and the Episcopal ring ceremony, repeated by Rev. A. S. Embree, made two hearts one.

A corner of the room was banked to the ceiling with palms and the bride and groom stood beneath a wedding bell of pink and white roses. The bride wore a white silk gown, simply made, with yoke and high collar of pearl passementerie and a deep bertha of duchesse lace. Her slippers and gloves were of white suede and her only ornament was a diamond pin, the gift of the groom.

Twenty-one white roses composed the bridal bouquet. The bride's oldest sister, Ella, as maid of honor, was attired in a white Swiss muslin, with square corsage and short puffed sleeves. She wore diamonds and carried a superb bunch of La France roses.

The bridesmaid, Miss Jessie Holler, wore an empire gown of white china silk, with ruffles of Federa lace and she carried a cluster of pink roses.

Immediately after the ceremony small tables were spread for lunch and the thirty guests ate, drank and were merry. Mrs. Sherman in a black silk with garniture of Irish guipure was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. John Donahue of El Paso, who wore a tan silk costume combined with brown moire and point de gené lace, and carried Maraschal Nell roses.

Mr. Hodgins occupies the responsible position of steward of the Topeka Club, and both he and his bride have many friends here who extend congratulations.

They will be at home after June 10, at 525 Van Buren street.

A Picnic Party.

Mrs. J. F. Daniels invited a party of friends to spend yesterday afternoon at Gardfield park, complimentary to Mrs. Geo. Wilmarth who leaves Friday for Boston to visit her mother who is ill.

All the delights of a June picnic were thoroughly enjoyed and the gentlemen joined the party in time for the excellent supper which was spread under the trees.

They returned to the city about 8 o'clock and in the company were Messrs. and Mesdames John R. Sargent, John Sargent, Jr., Braustrup, Hollingshead, Chas. King, D. L. Lakin, Edwin Knowles, E. Simmons, Herron, Foss, Wahle, Webster, Holmes, Brett, Williams, Collins, Fisher, Misses Myra Williams, Alice Prescott, Nellie Whitehead, Mabel Daniels and Alice Lakin.

Today's Wedding.

At noon today the marriage of Miss Grace Warren Crandell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Crandell, and Mr. Edwin J. Frost of Johnsonville, N. Y., was solemnized, and about thirty relatives and immediate friends assembled in their parlor to witness the ceremony.

At the appointed hour Miss Myrtle Jetmore went to the piano and the music of Mendelssohn's wedding march announced the approach of the bride and groom, who were met under an arch of asparagus and daisies by Bishop Thomas and Dean Millsbaugh, who performed the impressive ceremony of Grace church.

The group made an exceedingly effective picture, the bride looking her loveliest in a smart walking costume of silk and wool novelty cloth, of a delicate heliotrope shade, combined with moire and cream lace, and in her ungloved hand she carried a prayer book.

It was a daisy wedding and these pretty yellow eyed flowers peeped at the guests from a nest of green, at every hand.

The arch under which the bridal party stood was the work of four near and dear friends of the bride, Misses Kate and Clara Thacher, Jennie and Cordelia Price. Many loving thoughts were interwoven with the feathery asparagus strands, which were starred here and there with daisies. A marriage bell of daisies hung at either side from the canopy roof, and curtains of natural green fell to the floor, and were looped back with daisy garlands.

In the hall, the balustrade was wound with asparagus, and a punch bowl rested in a bed of daisies and foliage, presided over by Gladys Price and Almee Crandell, in dainty muslin frocks, who also distributed the souvenir boxes of wedding cake.

A curtain of daisies and asparagus hung before the bay window in the back parlor, and jardinières overflowed with the blossoms on the piano and in corners. A wedding—breakfast was served on small tables laid in green and white, and immediately after the bride and groom left for a tour of three or four weeks including the larger eastern cities and great lakes.

The bride is one of Topeka's fairest daughters, and in losing her from the home and social circles, her friends will realize more than ever the sweet qualities of mind and disposition which have endeared her to them.

Mr. Frost is a rising business man and they will go to housekeeping in September in Johnsonville.
